Stone Brewing Co.

Also growing, Stone added a second bistro with tons of taps and an on-site brewery in Liberty Station, which just so happens to be SD's largest restaurant. (619.269.2100)

Wine List Addison

Fine dining standout Addison changed sommeliers, bringing in a Spago veteran, while keeping its incredible wine program on the upswing. (858.314.1900)

Delicias

Even with a plethora of changes, the Ranch's Delicias has kept its cellar in stellar order. (858.756.8000)

Specialty Cocktails Pacifica Del Mar

It's vodka — more than 200 varieties — that serves as the common thread for tasty sips at Pacifica Del Mar's Ocean Bar. (858.792.0476)

Searsucker

Brian Malarkey has mixologists pumping out produce-driven wonders like the Peter Rabbit with pickled Suzie's Farms carrots at his pair of Searsucker restos. (858.369.5700)

Bar Scene

Union Kitchen & Tap

Whether it's local brews or inventive craft cocktails like the tequila-laced Latin Manhattan, your thirst for a lively, convivial good time will be quenched. (760.230.2337)

Late Night Happy Hour The 3rd Corner

Trying to call it a night can be challenging with steamed mussels, sliders galore, and all the reds and whites to pair with all of them. (760.942.2104)

Wine Bar Solana Beach Crush

Go for walls lined with a cellar's-worth of bottles leaning aptly to the Italian end of the vino spectrum at Solana Beach Crush (nothing like red sauce and a nice Sangiovese). (858.481.2787)

The Wine Pub

At The Wine Pub, enjoy a cozy glass or two among Point Lomans at a dog-friendly outdoor fire pit. (619.758.9325)

Gastropub Flying Pig Pub & Kitchen

Flying Pig soars above the competition with farm-to-table cuisine that's perhaps better than any other eatery in its hometown of Oceanside. (760.453.2940) >>
