After Track Dining Hot Spots

Union Kitchen & Tap

and dining at PCG, where every seat in the house was carefully planned to have an ocean view. Belly Up to a bar on either level, and dine al fresco on the patio or upper deck with one of the best views of the Pacific North Coast you can offer. (781.479.0721, www.pacificcoastgrill.com)

Fidel's

A perennial favorite for post-track celebrations, you can't go wrong with Fidel's, which has been serving up authentic Mexican cuisine (and libations) amid a cheerful and colorful ambience since 1966. (858.755.5262, www.fidelslittlemexico.com)

Union Kitchen & Tap

Enclitas' Union Kitchen & Tap offers a social setting in which to revel with friends after a successful day at the track. A leader in the coastal town's revitalization over the last few years, Union boasts an array of dining areas in which to showcase its New American food, local craft beer, small vintage wines, and handcrafted cocktails. Solace & The Moonlight Lounge

Helmed by Matt and Young-Mi Gordon, Enclitas' Solace & The Moonlight Lounge puts the utmost care into sourcing the best possible ingredients for its offerings — right down to the handcrafted maraschino cherries from Washington, handmade artisan domestic cheeses, and even its unique liquors and other bar offerings. We'd bet on an equally impressive experience at the Gordons' soon-to-open See & Struck at Flower Hill Promenade. (760.753.2433, www.enclitasolace.com) >>

Pacific Coast Grill
