

National Fried Chicken Day

July 4, 2016 Maria Desiderata Montana

Pecan Crusted Chicken Sandwich

With an ability to satisfy any case of the munchies, Fried Chicken has been dubbed the ultimate comfort food. With July 6th being National Fried Chicken Day, you'll want to know where to get some of the most out-of-the-box dishes around all week long!

Catching the surf in Pacific Beach? Before you hit the waves, fuel up at Backyard Kitchen & Tap with their decadent Fried Chicken n' Waffles made with a cornmeal waffle topped with honey whipped butter, pure maple syrup and a crunchy, boneless, free-range and organic chicken.

1919 has a crazy fried chicken dish of their own that you probably wouldn't find on many menus... fried chicken skins! Arguably one of the best parts of a fried chicken dish, the skins can be ordered traditional with seasoning for taste or salt and vinegar style. Either way, if you love crispy bites you're sure to be satisfied.

Farmer's Bottega's Pecan Crusted Chicken Sandwich takes a healthy spin on the traditional southern dish. Made with chicken breast, pecans, peppers, lemon and gorgonzola cheese, this recipe is filled with a zest of hearty flavors all under one Kaiser roll.

You can't forget about Common Theory's Chicken Fried Cheeseburger on National Fried Chicken Day! This dish will transport you to a southern grandmother's kitchen with panko breaded beef patty that's skillfully fried and topped with a horseradish Havarti, charred scallions and an aioli-style country spread.

Encinitas' Union Kitchen & Tap whips up a delectable Chicken & Cornbread Waffle loaded with burnt honey maple syrup and buttermilk fried chicken. Pair it with bottomless mimosas on Saturday and Sunday for an extra fun day celebrating the crispy protein.

You don't have to travel far to get your Southern fix of home-cooking! Head to these restaurants all week long for a delicious serving of fried chicken from brunch to dinner.