

San Diego's best neighborhood burgers

For National Hamburger Day, sample a patty at one of these locally owned spots

By Pam Kragen, Michele Parente and Michael James Rocha | 4 p.m. May 25, 2016

Eduardo Contreras

Intro

San Diego's best neighborhood burgers

May 28 is National Hamburger Day, so if you ever needed a reason to head out and sample a few, we offer a collection of our favorite burgers from homegrown San Diego County restaurants in a neighborhood near you.

/ Encinitas Ale House

7

Encinitas

Encinitas Ale House's half-pound burgers (pictured) mix Angus, Kobe and Wagyu beef and can be ordered in a 2-for-1 special on Tuesdays. 1044 S. Coast Highway. 760 943-7180. encinitasalehouse.com. Union Kitchen & Tap's Union Burger is a true beauty, with a generous beef patty, a smoky/rich tomato jam and slab of melted white cheddar cheese on a toasted brioche bun. The burger is with optional fried egg, which isn't the least bit necessary, but still a yummy addition. 1108 S. Coast Highway. (760) 230-2337 or localunion101.com.