Main events

Mother's Day is Sunday. If you're looking for a special place to treat mom, here are a few suggestions:

Chef on the move: Union Kitchen & Tap Encinitas welcomes Erik Miller as its new executive chef. Miller started as a prep cook at age 15 and attended Le Cordon Bleu Culinary School. His kitchen experience led him to pursue a heavily Asian-inspired culinary path at his first restaurant job out of school, which he believes shaped his current cooking style: "simple, clean and well-executed." 1108 S. Coast Highway 101, Encinitas. (760) 230-2337. localunion101.com.

Email calendar items at least two weeks in advance of the event to foodevents@sduniontribune.com.
